Dedication

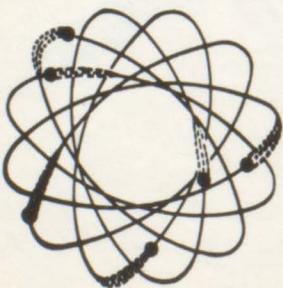

We, the annual staff of 1963, wish to dedicate the BULLDOG of 1963 to our superintendent and friend, Mr. Fleming, whose unfailing devotion, interest, and guidance has inspired us to reach for the higher goals of education.

Mr. Fleming has served Wisner High School seven years as class sponsor, principal, and superintendent. The door of his office is always open to those who seek his counsel and guidance. Because of this fact, many students have gone on into fields of higher education.

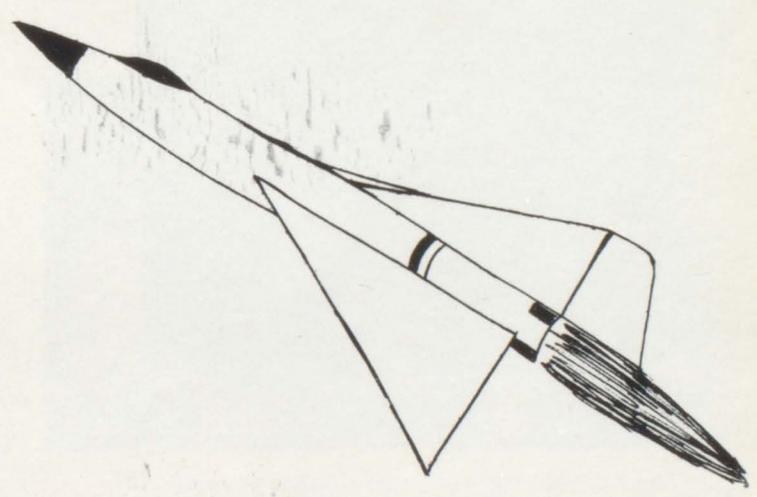

May this dedication to you, Mr. Fleming, serve as a token of our appreciation.

This is to honor Clem McGill, and All-State football player in class "B": and an honorable mention in class "A". Clem is one of the finest athletes that has ever graduated from Wisner High School. He has earned eight monograms--four in football, two in basketball, and two in track.

Along with being an excellent football player, Clem is also a very good student. He was one of the fourteen seniors to take the regents examinations, Clem was also picked to represent Wisner at Boys State last year.

To you, Clem McGill, the Wisner Bulldog wishes to offer its congratulations.

The following were chosen to the All-Conference football team this year: Clem McGill, Bryon Stigge, and Gayle Giese.

Wisner High's W Club is an organization of the athletes of the school. Membership goes along with the accomplishment and satisfaction of earning a letter in football, basketball, track or by being a help to one of these teams. The club is under the sponsorship of the coaches.

The purpose is to have a fine group of boys to represent the education afforded them by participating in these sports. The members should set a standard and model for the rest of the upstanding people in the school and community.

A few activities are taken by the club such as: A yearly trip to Lincoln to see a football game and the co-sponsoring of a prom in the spring.

The large yellow "W" will undoubtedly be remembered by all of the club members as a symbol of the extra-curricular education they received by taking part in sports at Winsor High School.

The lettering is in gold and a distinctive design is seen on the left hand side. Our annual is being produced this year by the Inter-Collegiate Press.

This year we're trying something new to us. We are planning a supplement for this annual. It will contain 8 pages and will arrive during the late summer.

The main objective was to produce an annual that in years to come, as you glance through its pages, will make you reminiscent of many pleasant memories that you've had during your days at Wisner High School.

The freshman class entered high school this year with the same worries as previous years. It was hard at first to become accustomed to the great change but it became easier after the first week when we had to settle down to hard studying.

We had a wonderful initiation that I'm sure no one could possibly forget. We were later rewarded with a dance given by the seniors which was a lot of fun for all.

Our class was the second largest class of Wisner High School and therefore participated in most of the school activities.

We are all hoping that our next three years will be as enjoyable as our first year has been thus far.

Well, here we are, Sophomores at last, - one year older and wiser. We have adjusted to the high school routine and are now ready to go forward in knowledge and make plans for our future.

Many of us have taken part in extracurricular activities which have made our year more enjoyable and interesting, despite the growing difficulty of our lessons. We have learned to take on new responsibilities which will to some degree, determine our success in the future.

We hope September, 1963, will find us all back here at Wisner High greeting friends, old and new, and ready to take new challenges in our stride.

It seems almost unbelievable that we, the junior class of 1963, have almost completed three years of high school and are about ready to face our last, and possibly most challenging year.

Our magazine sales, principal fund raising activity of the junior class, boomed skyward this year as we surpassed two thousand dollars and went well over the goal.

The magazine sales, county government day, the Junior-Senior Prom, and various other undertakings rounded out a full and active year for us juniors.

I am sure my classmates will agree with me when I say that this year has undoubtedly been our most active, vigorous, and educational year of high school so far. The many activities in which we, as a class, have participated have proven challenging but rewarding. We can only look ahead now to our senior year, and sincerely hope that it will be as interesting and fruitful as our three previous years at Wisner High.

Seniors

"I'm going to the University. Where are you going?" This is a familiar comment as some of the seniors plan their future.

We seniors are finally in the last year of high school. Many tell us that these years are the best of our life but we naturally are dubious. As upperclassmen we should have learned a few things about life, for we will soon be exposed to it and we are thankful of the opportunity to have learned these things.

In remembering our years at Wisner we will surely have fond memories of the trials and troubles, our good friends, and our devoted teachers.

Our extra-curricular activities probably gave us the most satisfaction and we gained many things by contact with others.

Most of all, we would like to thank our parents, teachers, and any others who have helped, for teaching us the values of live in a peaceful community. Certainly it is our obligation to them to be a credit to our country and to be respectable citizens.

Byron Stigge, President

"You have half an hour to get this letter finished," says Miss Nelson to her office practice girls.
