ROLL NOTES

Roll 10

August 1900-September 1906

This roll is a continuation of correspondence relating to the work Furnas performed in administering the Nebraska State Fairs. In addition there are a number of requests for agricultural information, endorsements of individuals to agricultural commissions, and letters from agriculturists throughout Nebraska inquiring into some aspect of agriculture. Samuel C. Bassett, J. Sterling Morton, J.H. Millard, and other persons write to Furnas commenting on a number of contemporary issues including fair business matters and national and state political developments. Included with this roll are undated letters involving Furnas's term as Governor and subsequent affairs as Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture.
